Seville, July 25, N. S.

ON the 19th Inſtant the Marqueſs de la Paz, Secretary of State, wrote a Letter to Mr. Keene, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at this Court, by the King of Spain's Order, deſiring that as his Catholick Majeſty has at preſent no Miniſter actually reſiding at the Court of Great Britain, Mr. Keene would acquaint the King his Maſter, in his Catholick Majeſty's Name, with the Conqueſt of Oran, with all its Forts, and the Caſtle of Mazalquivir, not doubting but his Britannick Majeſty would receive with Pleaſure the News of this happy Succeſs of his Catholick Majeſty's Arms againſt the Infidels, and would ſhare in the Joy that it has given him. The Count de Montijo, his Catholick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour to the King of Great Britain, ſet out from hence the 12th Inſtant for Madrid where he intends to ſtay about three Weeks, and then to ſet forward on his Journey to England. The Right Honourable the Earl of Albemarle arrived here on the 20th Inſtant, and the next Day was preſented to their Catholick Majeſties, the Prince and Princeſs of Aſturias, and the reſt of the Royal Family by Mr. Keene, and met with a moſt gracious Reception. His Lordſhip has had a Viſit from ſeveral Grandees and other Perſons of Diſtinction, and was entertained at Dinner by his Excellency M. Patino, Governour of the Finances and Secretary of State. To-morrow his Lordſhip ſets out by Land for Gibraltar, having received the neceſſary Paſſports from this Court for that Purpoſe.

Hanover, Aug. 13, N. S. The 10th in the Morning Sir Cyril Wich, Bart. his Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Hans Towns, returned to his Poſt at Hambourg. Walter Titley, Eſq; his Majeſty's Reſident at the Court of Denmark, having obtained the King's Leave to pay his Duty to his Majeſty here, arrived the ſame Day in the Afternoon from Copenhagen, and that Evening waited on his Majeſty at Herrenhauſen, who received him very graciouſly. The King has fixed on the 26th Inſtant for his Journey to Celle, where his Majeſty will ſtay four or five Days and review the Troops quartered in that Neighbourhood; and from thence his Majeſty intends to go to the Gohrde.

Hague, Aug. 15, N. S. We have Advice that the King of Pruſſia arrived the 30th of laſt Month at Glodrop, a Hunting-Seat, where he was received and complimented in the Emperour's Name by one of the Lords of his Imperial Majeſty's Bedchamber: Soon after which, the Emperour and the King of Pruſſia had an Interview at Glumitz, where his Pruſſian Majeſty dined with their Imperial Majeſties, ſitting at the Left Hand of the Empreſs, who had the Emperour at her Right. From thence they all repaired to Prague, where his Pruſſian Majeſty was treated at Dinner the next Day by Prince Eugene of Savoy. The States of the Province of Holland are ſummoned to meet on Wedneſday next. The Great Penſionary being confined to his Bed by Indiſpoſition, will hardly be able to aſſiſt in their Aſſembly. The Prince of Naſſau Orange returned hither to Day from Frieſland. During his ſhort Stay there, the States of that Province came to ſeveral Reſolutions concerning the repairing the Timber-work of their Digues. The Fubbs Yacht is arrived at Rotterdam, having brought over the Lord Euſton, Son to the Duke of Grafton, who is come hither.
